Pittsburgh Wrestling Classic at Peters Township High School

Pittsburgh, PA – After 29 years at the Pitt Field House, the Pittsburgh Wrestling Classic will be held at a different venue. The 48th Annual competition will be held at Peters Township High School, a new, state-of-the-art facility, on Friday, March 25, 2022.

“The new venue is ideal for accommodating the loyal Wrestling Classic fan base.” said Co-Director Phil Mary. “With any change like this comes a new set of decisions. The local organizing committee is working through all the details with the Athletic Department to ensure everyone involved in the event has a positive experience.” said Mary.

The Pittsburgh Press Old Newsboy Wrestling Classic was held at the Civic Arena in its first seven years, from 1975 – 1981. In 1982, The Wrestling Classic moved to the Pitt Field House.

In Classic VIII, in 1982, Kyle Nellis, a Pitt recruit, pinned Al Palacio, a 2X state champion from New York, to ignite the PA Team to a 24-19 victory. Nellis was named the Outstanding Wrestler of the PA Team. Greg Elinski, from St. Edwards High School in Cleveland, Ohio, was named the USA Outstanding Wrestler.

Tickets are on sale at three outlets, Wright Automotive Group on Route 19, Peters Township High School in Washington County and Franklin Regional High School in Westmoreland County during normal business and school hours.

Tickets can be purchased by check using the ticket order form or by credit card. Visit the web site available on the web site to purchase by check and online using a credit card.
