U. S. Steel Signs on as Presenting Sponsor of the Pittsburgh Wrestling Classic on March 25 at AHN Arena at Peters Township High School

PITTSBURGH – United States Steel Corporation will be the Title Sponsor of the Pittsburgh Wrestling Classic to be held on Saturday, March 25, 2023, at the AHN Arena at Peters Township High School. The Classic showcases the country's best high school seniors at an all-star one-day event to raise funds for communities in need.

The Pittsburgh Wrestling Classic begins at 4:00 p.m. when athletes from the WPIAL take on the Ohio All-Stars. The Pennsylvania vs. USA All-Stars matches begin at 6:00 p.m. The entire event will be livestreamed on FloWrestling.

"We are thrilled to partner with U. S. Steel for the event," said Kraig Nellis, Pittsburgh Wrestling Classic Co-Director. "U. S. Steel produced the steel that built America and is synonymous with the City of Pittsburgh, its blue-collar, manufacturing reputation and its transformation into the 21st century."

"As a past participant, I know The Pittsburgh Wrestling Classic has a rich history of using amateur wrestling as a platform to provide entertainment value and charitable giving. It provides opportunities for youth in communities where we live and work an opportunity to learn wrestling and build character while laying the foundation for stronger communities, here and across the country," said Scott Buckiso, Senior Vice President and Chief Manufacturing Officer.

Established in 1975, The Pittsburgh Wrestling Classic is the most prestigious high school all-star dual meet event in the country. It has been dubbed the Rose Bowl of Wrestling as the end of season marquee event for wrestling's most elite.
